

MONKA SOCCER ACADEMY

The youth academy is designed to develop young aspiring soccer players in the areas of technique (skills), tactics (decision making), physical fitness, and sports psychology. The youth academy will be run by former professional player Bryan Monka with the intent of teaching skill, creativity, and decision making in a fun, competitive environment where winning is encouraged but is not the sole focus.

Instructor: Bryan Monka

Location: Community Center Park

The focus with this group will be on simple technical skills. The skills will be learned through fun games and repetition. One versus one play will be encouraged at these ages.

UMPIRE CERTIFICATION COURSE

Saturday Age: 18+

If you are a “people person” and enjoy the game of softball come out and umpire for a few extra bucks. Umpires need to have some knowledge of the game of softball, have the ability to work with people, have fun and make some extra cash on the side. The umpire certification course is for currently certified umpires or those who want to start to umpire. This one day course will go over rules and mechanics with a mandatory exam at the completion of the course. Rookie umpires or those who have not been certified recently will umpire a practice game a week after the course. Location: Room 7.

Instructor: Marty Uskali.
